SITUATION

Coniecleugh really is a hidden gem, located at the end of a mile long track taken from the B9022 Huntly to Portsoy country road. This idyllic location is only 4 miles from Huntly which benefits from a good range of shops, cafes, restaurants, hospital, and leisure facilities. The town has both primary and secondary state schools whilst a range of private schools are available in Aberdeen which is approximately 42 miles to the south.

Huntly has a population of around 4460 (2004 census) and is renowned for its history being the home of the Gordon Highlanders regiment. The ruins of Huntly Castle, was the majestic home to one of the county's most prominent Catholic's, the Earls of Huntly. With a long history of prestige, the castle provided shelter to important figures including Robert the Bruce. Enhancing the area's rich past is Leith Hall. Just a short drive from the town, the manor house sits within its own substantial acre estate lined with beautiful gardens creating an air of tranquillity and freedom not far from the city. The local attractions of Glendronach Distillery and the Huntly Falconry centre are also located nearby.

Coniecleugh itself is steeped in history being the home of Major Walter Aitchison. The property is ideally situated for those wishing to take advantage of the wealth of recreational opportunities available in rural Aberdeenshire renowned for its unspoilt beauty. With the City of Aberdeen which has its own airport is within commuting distance this an ideal location for those wishing for a work and lifestyle balance.

DESCRIPTION

Coniecleugh is the most charming property set in a truly private location with beautiful views across the surrounding farmland and the River Deveron. The property feels spacious and remote whilst only being 4 miles from the centre of Huntly. The farm is approached via a long single-track driveway which is privately owned and only shared with a small number of neighbours. It is the most perfect lifestyle property with beautiful 5/6 bedroom farmhouse, a range of buildings affording potential for range of uses and a productive block of land all in view of the farmhouse. This idyllic location is a sanctuary for nature lovers with extensive native wildlife on the farm including, otters, heron, pine marten, wildcats, osprey, hares, deer and pheasants.

CONIECLEUGH FARMHOUSE

The farmhouse is very attractive traditional stone built family house set in a magnificent south facing position, looking down toward the River Deveron. Far reaching views across the farmland are enjoyed from the front of the house and all the south facing rooms; because of its open aspect, the house benefits from a wonderfully light and bright atmosphere and provides adaptable family accommodation in well-proportioned rooms. The house could benefit from some modernisation but is has been well maintained by the current owners who have retained so many of the original features including the fireplaces, deep skirtings, ornate corning, and wood panelling. Most notably the oil fired central heating boiler and storage tank has been replaced in recent months.

The accommodation over two floor comprises:

Ground floor: spacious entrance hall; main hallway with access to all ground floor accommodation and sweeping staircase rising to first floor; drawing room with features including open fire with hardwood mantle, bay window with built in window seat, raised wainscotting, cornice and picture rail; Lounge/dining room with bay window, open fire with hardwood mantle and tile surround, ceiling cornice and picture rail; Study/snug with solid fuel stove and picture rail, Bathroom with feature rolltop bath, wc, wash hand basin and shower; Store cupboard/larder; Kitchen with Rayburn Royal, modern floor and wall units including central island unit, two ovens, integrated fridge and 4 hob gas stove; cupboard housing new oil central heating boiler, door to courtyard. 2 understairs cupboards; Stairs from kitchen to: Office/bedroom/playroom with lots of light via velux windows to the east and west.

First floor:

Spacious landing; Master bedroom with views to south and east; Bedroom 2 with views to south; Bedroom 3 with views to east; Bedroom 4 looking over rear courtyard; Bedroom 5/nursery with wonderful views across the Deveron; Cloakroom with wash hand basin and WC.

In total the property extends to approximately 273sq.m (See floor plans for room layout and dimensions).

EXTERNAL

The house is set in extensive garden grounds which are mainly to the north and east and laid to lawn with interspersed trees. Boundary hedging and stone dykes add shelter and interest to the garden whilst there is a large gravel parking area to the south providing ample parking for several cars. The River walk along the privately owned track is extremely picturesque and peaceful.

There is a fantastic range of traditional outbuildings to the rear of the house including: Workshop; Old laundry with original laundry sinks; Store; Tack room and Woodshed with feature fireplaces and affording scope for a variety of uses including home office, gym or ancillary guest accommodation.

To the west of the farmhouse is an attractive double garage (6.34m x 6.14m) built of concrete blocks, timber clad under a slate roof with a concrete floor.

AGRICULTURAL BUILDINGS

This building group is located to the northeast of the Farmhouse with a central concrete covered courtyard providing plentiful space for vehicle turning and parking. These buildings provide useful cover in their current form although could be used for a variety of purposes subject to obtaining planning permission.

It is noted that the buildings to the east are specifically excluded from the sale (please refer to the sales plan for more information).

FORMER FARM COTTAGES

Situated to the east of the farmhouse, looking out towards the river is a pair of semi-detached traditionally built former farm cottages. These buildings require complete renovation and perspective purchasers are advised not to access the buildings whilst viewing. With such an idyllic location the cottages offer fantastic potential to create one or two houses or holiday homes (subject to obtaining the necessary planning permission).

TOTAL FLOOR AREA : 2939sq.ft. (273.0 sq.m.) approx.

FARMLAND

The farmland extends to 20.46 hectares (50.55 acres) and is divided into three principal fields that are located within one distinct block to the south of the farmhouse. All the land is accessed from a principal track which runs along the eastern boundary adjacent to the River Deveron. The land rises from 95m to 110m and is classified as Grade 3.2. Field 3 is currently in grass and has been used for growing silage. Fields 4 and 5 are both arable and are currently in stubble after spring barley. The farm has been contract farmed in the past and a similar arrangement may be possible with an incoming purchaser if required. Alternatively, the land would be ideal for creation of a smallholding or equestrian unit.

WOODLAND

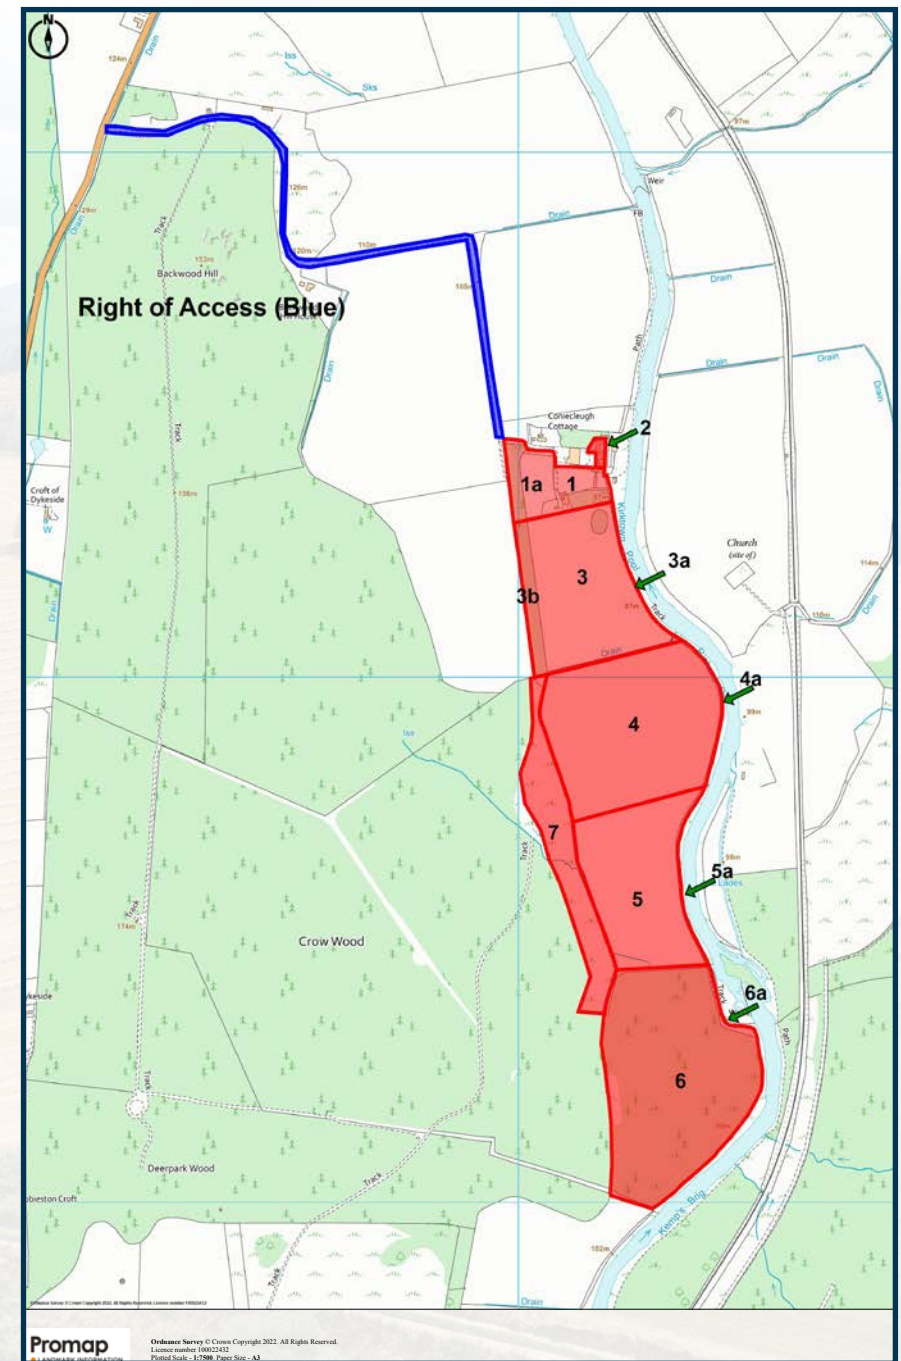

The woodland extends to 15.07 hectares (37.24 acres) in total with the largest enclosure being no.6 on the plan extending to 10.03 hectares (24.78 acres). This formerly an arable field planted in 2001 under a Farm Woodland Premium Scheme, comprising a mixture of Scots pine, sitka spruce and broadleaves. It is noted that the larger blocks of woodland have now reached maturity and offer the opportunity for immediate timber income subject to obtaining the necessary consents.

The strips of woodland around the house provide wonderful amenity and shelter for the property.

BASIC PAYMENT SCHEME ENTITLEMENTS

There are 20.88 Region 1 entitlements available by separate negotiation. Further details are available from the Selling Agent.

INGOING

In addition to the purchase price the Purchasers will be required to take over at valuation the items described below. The valuation will be made by two valuers, one representing the Vendors and the other the Purchasers. Failing agreement between the valuers, the valuation will be referred to the decision of a single Arbitrator to be appointed by mutual agreement and failing agreement by the President for the time being of the Royal Institution of Chartered Surveyors (Scottish Branch). Each party will be responsible for meeting its own valuation cost.

- 1) Any growing crops on the basis of the cost of seed, sowing, fertiliser, chemical and ancillary costs. CAAV costings will be used where relevant
- 2) All silage, hay, straw and other produce at market value.
- 3) All fertiliser, chemicals, seed, oils, fuels and other items in store not required by the Vendors at cost.
- 4) No claim will be made in respect of the residual manurial values of fertiliser and lime or for unexhausted manurial values.
- 5) The Purchasers will not be entitled to make any claim or setoff whatsoever in respect of any dilapidation or other item or matter.
- 6) The Vendors shall be responsible for any rates, taxes and other burdens up to the date of Completion of Sale. Where necessary all rates, taxes and other burdens will be apportioned between the Vendors and the Purchasers as at the Completion Date.
- 7) The Purchasers will be responsible for ensuring that all cross-compliance requirements are met in full.

DIRECTIONS
